COMMON PRE-BOARD EXAMINATION, 2012-13

Home Science
Class – XII
Maximum Marks : 70

General Instructions:
- All questions are compulsory.
- Marks for each question are indicated against it.
- Read each question carefully and answer to the point.
- All points of the question should be attempted together.

1. Differentiate between growth and development. (1)
2. Give three diseases against which DPT vaccine gives protection? (1)
3. Who is a disabled child? (1)
4. Give one reason why green leafy vegetables should not be served to a person suffering from diarrhoea. Give the name of another food which should not be served in the meal. (1)
5. Mention two advantages of having a fixed deposit account in a bank? (1)
6. Give two examples of commodities bearing ISI mark. (1)
7. List two ways of creating rhythm in a dress. (1)
8. Give any two properties of a good soap for washing clothes. (1)
9. Name two negative emotions a child develops by the age of 6 months. Also give one reason each for the same. (2)
10. All family members became sick after eating the dinner. In what ways could the cook be responsible for their illness? (2)
11. Give four functions, other than physical, of clothing for an individual. (2)
12. What is ‘animative thinking’? At what age does the child shows ‘animative thinking’? Clarify the concept along with an example. (2)
13. Enumerate any four employment opportunities available to you on the basis of your knowledge in ‘Child Development’. (2)
14. Give any four factors that arise the need for supplementing family income. (2)
15. Enumerate four ways by which a teacher should educate the blind in a regular classroom. (2)
16. You have started some income generation activity which has begun to give profits. Give four reasons why you should start saving money from these profits. (2)

R/2 [P.T.O.]
17. State four ways by which you can use various colours in clothing to disguise figure flaws. (2)
18. How is the consumer cheated by variation in prices? (2)
19. Elaborate any two services provided by ICDS. (2)
20. Write two differences between GPF and CPF schemes. (2)
21. Write four points you will keep in mind while selecting dress for a three year old child. (2)
22. Ruchi wants to store away her cotton clothes till summer is back. Give any four precautions she should observe while doing this. (2)
23. Write down two indicators each about the achievements in motor, social and cognitive development of a one year old child. (3)
24. Identify the disease if a child is suffering from the following symptoms - fever, headache, drowsiness, pain and tenderness in muscles of the limbs and rigid neck. What is the mode of spread, causative agent and incubation period of the disease? Give two ways of taking care of the patient. (3)
25. How can we plan a nutritional meal for a low income group family within the budget? (3)
26. Describe the use of alum for purifying water. Give one benefit and one drawback of the same method. (3)
27. Discuss briefly the salient features of consumer courts. (3)
28. You want to purchase a ready made salwar kameez for your sister. Write six points of workmanship you will check while purchasing it. (3)
29. How much additional calories and proteins from normal woman, is required by a lactating mother and why? Suggest two modifications in a meal of potato - pakoras and tea to help her in obtaining some of the extra requirements. (4)
30. The arhar dal you purchased had some different grains. What are they? How will you detect them? Discuss their health hazards? (4)
31. Discuss the various components of family income with suitable examples. (4)
32. Briefly describe the steps of laundering a black woollen cardigan at home. Also justify the need for each step. (4)