Subject:- Regarding rumours about the end semester examination

It has been observed that every other day a fake letter/notice is being circulated by some scrupulous elements by altering the contents of old circulars from the university website with help of photoshop or any other technical tool.

Please note that any decision regarding the dates of even semester examination shall be taken only after the lifting of the lock down. Therefore, it is requested not to fall prey to such rumours and fake messages.

In case you receive any news/message regarding examination; then instead of panicking, first check the circular section at the university website. Any update/information regarding examination will be first displayed on the university website and a copy of the letter will also be uploaded to your institute login. Please note, such important messages are never directly sent through WhatsApp or any other social media platform. Thus, you always have a way to verify the authenticity of the such messages.

You are therefore advised to act judiciously and prevent the spread of such rumours.
